Junior Systems Engineer

The successful Junior Systems Engineer is a professional who will install and maintain IP based networks for clients across the Commonwealth of Kentucky under the direction of the Lead Systems Engineer.

Responsibilities
- Ensure the reliability and efficiency of client networks
- Communicate status of projects to supervisor and client as directed
- Complete assigned tasks on time and on budget

Duties
- Install and maintain VOIP phone systems
- Install and maintain server and desktop operating systems and applications
- Install and maintain Layer 2 and Layer 3 ethernet equipment
- Install and maintain wireless networks
- Track district work orders
- Recommend parts to order for assigned projects to Lead Engineer
- Provide technical phone support
- Obtain and maintain industry certifications as required
- Willingness to travel regularly (weekly) overnight and work non-standard hours required
- On-call availability
- Other duties as assigned

Skills and Qualifications
- Good oral and written communication skills
- Experience with iOS, Linux, Microsoft, and OSX, operating systems
- Experience with VMWare
- Experience with ethernet routing
- Experience with VOIP
- Experience with BASH, PHP, PowerShell, and Visual Basic Scripting,
- Must be able to lift 40 pounds occasionally
- Must be able to perform work on ladders up to 12 feet
- Must be willing to work more than 40 hours per week as needed
- Proficiency in English
- Fast learner

Education and Experience
- Bachelor's degree required
- Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or equivalent preferred
- CompTIA A+, Network+, and Security+ certifications preferred
- Proven track record of handling sensitive information

Email cover letter and resume to jobs@kedc.org